STATE ACTION NULLIFIED.

They said the judgment of the Court was too into: it was pronounced after the Hayes electors had met and made out their votes, and sent them to the President of the Senate. Here were two sets of electors, each claiming the exclusive right to vote for the Sante, and both of them actually sent up their ballots. One of them was duly appointed, and had the authority claimed; the other set was necessarily composed of mere pretenders, who were not duly appointed, and, having no authority, their vote was a mere kullity. Which party was right, and which wrong? The conflict must be settled somehow, Where was the jurisdiction to determine it? Undoubtedly, and by universal admission, the power was in the courts of the State from which both claimants professed to derive their authority. The proper State courts did determined it; but the Commissioners said that however competent the lourisdiction of hood and saturated all through with The unvarying preference of the eight Commissioners for the false over the true becomes very striking at this point. When they got behind the Governor's papers, they found lying aliande two other sets of documents, one of which was a record of the actual appointment made by the people; the other was a mere fobrication of the Returning Board without any semblance of truth; they embraced the latter with all the ardor of sheere affection, and rejected the former with all possible marks of their dislike. A DEFAULTING LEGISLATOR, The defalcation of O. F. Bullard, Republican member of the Legislature from Delaware county, appears to have been studiously concealed for a considerable time, and there is a weil-grounded belief that his political friends are trying to shield him from the results of his wrong-doing. It was known in April that he was a defaulter as secretary of the Second Media Building Association, and yet the report was only made within the last week. The amount that his seat in the Logislature, and no steps have been taken apparently to punish his crime. Beitysbung Compiler. LIVES LOST IN THE STORM, -- Clincinunti, July 2.—The storm of wind and cain of Saturday night last was even more destructive of life and property than the provious one. Its path seems to have been through the country in Indiana and Ohio, lying a little south of the States of the States of the Wavenier of the States Indiana and Ohio, lylng a little south of the centre of the States. At Waverlay, Johnson county, Indiana, at about 9 Pork o'clock at night the storm struck the residence of Goorge Dressler, blowing When. it estirely away, and leaving fruit cans in the ceiber undisturbed. Dressler Co was found near by, with his feet lacera-Another child, aged twelve years, died resterday, while a fourth child, nine years old, received a bad scalp wound and had its ankle dislocated, and is not expected to recover. The residence of James Armstrong was nearly blown down. One child was killed and another has since died. Neur St. Paul, Ind., barns, dwellings, a charch and school house were entirely destroyed. Michael Meheslich was kill-1; Mrs. Richer was fatally injured; C. Juppenlatz internally injured; and John Lowis had his collar hone broken. At Jolly, Ind., a new cloucel was torn to pieces. The farmers lose heavily. Many cattle were killed, tenses levelied, barns and onthouses destroyed. Corn. watst high, was literally torn to shreds and ploughed ground carried away. The storm was a quarter to a half a mile in width. A train eastward bound on the Pan Handle road was overtaken by the tornade near Knightstown, and a tree fell across the forward end of the Disastrones Storm A disputch from Janesville, Wis., says that a tertible tornado swept everything before it in that section Sunday night. The storm at Pensaukee station, twenty five miles north of Green Bay, on the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, destroying the Cardiner House, the largest brick hotel and summer resort in North-ern Wisconsin, Eight persons are known to have been killed, and two known to have been killed, and two are missing. Other buildings were blown to pieces. The place is a total wreck. A sawnill, the school-house, a store and fifteen or twenty other buildings were blown down. A powerful gust of wind raised the railroud depot from its foundations and throw it across the track, preventing the passage of the Green Bay train for two hours. The hidge was misplaced and damaged. The steamer Spray and aschooner were from Bulgaria and entered Roumania after passing the Balkans, This was done with an ineffective army, not execeding 20,000 men. They also reached that city.

Advianople, an old Turkish capital, Exercise 110 miles from Constantinople, Their force at that time was insufficient to warrant the hope of further success. Now they may reasonably expect to Now they may reasonably expect to to reach Adrianople with six times that member of soldiers. Should they succeed in this the capital of Constantino C ceed in this the capital of Constantino de would still be exceedingly doubtful, as that city would be resolutely and strongly defended to the last. It should remembered, however, that this year the Russians cannot operate so advantageously by sea as they were enabled to do in 1829, at which thus their fleets had command of the Eaxine and the Ægean sea. Now they have no float in the latter soa, now could their naval force in the Enxine be made available in a siege of Constantinople.

Thus it would appear that notwith thanding the numerical superiority of Stuben-1-than in the superiorit force in the Enxine be made available
